This team will report to the Sponsorship Coordinator and will be responsible for creating a variety of content for VIFF’s social channels. Following the sponsorship social media deliverables, duties will include drafting copy, and creating content creatively recognizing the support of VIFF’s sponsors on social media platforms.

This role is good for someone who:

- Is an excellent storyteller and writer with overall strong communication skills
- Is enrolled in a journalism/communications post-secondary program
- Has previous writing experience
- Has experience with creating content for all social platforms
- Is comfortable working independently
- Is interested in volunteering ahead of the Festival dates

Photography Team (shared with Marketing Department)

We are looking for event photographers to cover key events for VIFF. These included Q&As, galas, sponsor branding at events, filmmaker photo calls, and venue atmosphere to name a few.

This role is good for someone who:

- Has access to a DSLR
- Can provide examples of their work (please email to volunteer@viff.org)
- Has experience in event photography
- Has access to editing software
- Is able to work independently in a fast-paced environment
- Can provide edited photos of an event within a 24 hour time-frame.
