Industry and Events Department:
The Industry and Events department oversees a series of programming dedicated to expanding the way in which we experience screen-based media and film at the Vancouver Film Festival, including talks, conferences and labs.

The Industry Volunteer Team:
In working with the Event Coordinator and the Venue Manager, the Industry Volunteer provides hands-on support for all industry initiatives including the industry conference, talks, round-table discussions, private small-scale workshops and networking sessions.

This role is good for someone who:
• Has strong communication and customer service skills
• Has experience with public and VIPs, maintaining professional behaviour
• Is able to lift 25-50lbs
• Flexible availability on days, weekends and evenings
• Work collaboratively with a team
• Organized and detail-oriented
• Able to demonstrate strong interpersonal skills

AMP & LIVE Volunteer Team:
Reporting to the AMP & LIVE Coordinator, volunteers will be our on-the-ground, dedicated support for our special guests (AMP cohort, delegates, guests, performers) by answering questions regarding the schedule and locations, supporting venue managers, and ensuring the day-to-day programs flow smoothly.

This role is good for someone who:
• Has experience dealing with & interacting with the public, artists and VIPs
• Has experience working in a conference-like or live (concert) event setting
• Has strong English language skills. Additional language skills are beneficial
• Has flexible availability
• Is excited about music in film!
Industry & Events Lead Volunteer Team:
Industry & Events Leads work closely with the Event Coordinators to provide on-the-ground, dedicated support for our special guests and attendees by answering questions regarding the schedule and locations, supporting venue managers, and ensuring the day-to-day programs flow smoothly.

This role is good for someone who:
• Has experience dealing with the public and VIPs
• Previous experience in managing a team is an asset
• Has strong English language skills. Additional language skills are beneficial
• Able to remain calm and clear under pressure
• Able to multitask
• Has flexible availability

Expected date for mandatory orientation for all teams: Friday, September 22nd, 2023
